Quilt Story and/or comments: This information is requested for use on a card which will be printed and attached to the quilt during the show for the enjoyment of the viewers. Be as detailed as you wish. Please write your story on the back of this page. We reserve the right to edit (i.e., correct spelling, etc.) but we will not change the essence of your story. (Please limit to 50 words or less)

Quilts will be displayed by a variety of methods (by a sleeve, pinning or clips). A 4" sleeve must be securely sewn to the top/back of each large quilt (hung on a rack), or a 2 1/2" sleeve on small quilts (wall hangings). For detailed instructions on quilt sleeves, go to <http://www.mnquilt.org/documents/HangingSleeve.pdf>. Also, know that if your entry is more than 96", it will be folded to accommodate our racks.

Every effort is made to take excellent care of your entry. Your homeowners insurance is expected to cover your quilt in case of loss or damage, but check with your agent to be certain.

Liability Release: I, the undersigned, release Coos Sand 'n Sea Quilters and the Boys & Girls Club of any liability for damages or loss of the item listed above. I understand and agree to abide by the rules, and decisions, of the committee heads.
