1. Announcements

Meeting called to order at 6:38 p.m.

- New members one, Amy Elliot – been a past member and now she is back since she has a job that works with guild meeting times.
- Pam Boatright – Coos Art Museum, has rotating exhibits and she is doing a fibers arts exhibit. Please come and see or anyone interested in talking to people about quilting. Call Valerie Flynn if you are interested. Opening day is Saturday (probably 1-5)
- Quilt-a-thon in Coquille March 4, 2023, from 12:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Coquille Valley Art Association. Bring nothing or bring stuff to sew.
- Oregon Quilt Festival in Salem Convention Center.
- Tri Cities Quilters Guild in Kennewich Washington,
- Raffle table donations – we will continue to take items and will hold raffle next month.
- Bylaw changes: Martha M – informational. Elections have not been in compliance with our bylaws. Review suggested changes on January 17, 2023, at 4:30 at Threads that Bind. Send an email to Erika with the proposed changes. They will be presented at the February meeting. We cannot vote until March according to our bylaws. We are going to suggest changing the hard dates to a no later than clause. If any is not on the email list, not computer comfortable let us know so that they can be given a physical copy of the suggested changes.
- Any concerns or wanting to be more involved in the guild to change. Available on the webpage under forms. Please read and make suggestions per Dawn Conyer.
- Pam Boatright has a gift for everyone. She has been chosen as an Island Batik ambassador.

2. Vice President - Ruthe Garagnon

- Ruthe is back from surgery and doing well. We are going to do name tags tonight. Ruthe received an email from Paducah about a class in the color wheel. Sharon Leahy has volunteered to teach color wheel (5-10 minutes) each meeting. Rather than going into a technical description, it's all about color. Sharon will break it into sections and bring quilts to talk about what she will be demonstrating each lesson. Tonight's quilt will be about making an ombre. Shirley Hammer has agreed to show rouching. Joan Kendrick has a great demo on squaring up and half square triangles. Members have suggested having a group sewing date at First Christian Church. Need some dates – Get some General dates and get feedback to Ruthe or board members.

- Ruthe was saying that if you had anything that you want to learn. We will get a new roster out hopefully next month.
- Sharon L – can we take suggestions during meeting: Ideas: paper piecing, 5 minutes to square a corner, etc.
